BISHOP PASCAL

On Tuesday, October 6th, at 9:30 p.m. the Right Rev. A. Pascal, Bishop of Mosynopolis, and Vicar Apostolic of Saskatchewan, arrived at Prince Albert where he had been long and ardently desired. A large crowd met His Lordship at the station and escorted him to the Mission.

The beautiful convent of the Sisters Faithful Companions of Jesus was prettily illuminated, as was also the Presbytery. The following day at 10 a.m., the installation of the new Bishop took place. As His Lordship entered the church the "Ecce Sacerdos Magnus" was intoned, and after the ceremonies and prayers prescribed by the liturgy, Pontifical High Mass began.

The clergy present were: Very Rev. H. Ledue, V. G. of St. Albert, who represented His Lordship Bishop Grandin, the Rev. Fathers Fourmond, Bigoness, Dommeau, Moulin, Paquette, Blais, Le-coq, Charlebois, Pineau and Vachon.

The choir executed in an admirable manner Webb's Mass in G., being greatly assisted by the sweet voices of two of the ladies of the congregation, viz. Mrs. G. S. Davidson and Mrs. McGuire.

A very touching and appropriate sermon was preached by the Rev. H. Ledue who took for his text these words: "Behold I bring you good tidings of great joy."

After Mass an English and a French address were presented to his Lordship who replied in the most paternal manner. The English-speaking population were particularly gratified on hearing their address replied to in very fair English and in terms which testified to them that they would find in their new pastor, a Father and a friend. In the evening the large reception hall at the Convent was used as a chapel (owing to want of space in the cathedral) and was crowded with persons of every denomination.

After Vespers, Rev. Father Blais delivered an eloquent discourse on the Catholic Episcopate which with the Benediction of the Most Holy Sacrament, terminated the ceremonies of this ever memorable day.

A DESERVED COMPLIMENT

The Calgary Herald of Oct. 2nd contains the following:—

The dinner last night to His Honor Justice McGuire, of Prince Albert, was a handsome compliment on the part of the Bar of Calgary to a gentleman in every way worthy to be the recipient of this testimonial of friendship and esteem. Not only in Saskatchewan but throughout the Territories Judge McGuire's reputation as a just and fearless and painstaking jurist stands high, and his intercourse with the bar and citizens of Calgary only confirms opinions already generally held. His Honor, in his personal relations with the bar as well as with our citizens, has been extremely affable, while the lawyers are especially well pleased with the prompt manner in which business is despatched in chambers as elsewhere. The Judge's little speech last night was well received by all the gentlemen present, being in excellent taste throughout. His Honor has a fine voice and pleasing manner and impresses the hearer at once with his ability, sincerity and kindness of heart.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 14, 1891.

THE DATE IS NAMED.

At last the long looked for writs are here. Candidates can now put on their war paint, and the battle can commence in earnest. We understand that Mr. McKay is to have a walk over in the western division, but that a big push will be made to defeat Mr. Betts in the east.
We are pleased to learn that Mr.
McKay is to be relieved of all the anxiety of a conquest, and have no misgivings as to what the result in the eastern division will be. Mr.
Betts has been an earnest and painstaking representative for three years, and is entitled to much credit for permanent public works he has secured and the valuable amendments which he has carried through the Assembly, particularly in connection with the Municipal, School and Civil Justice Ordinances. He has ever been a strong defender of the rights of Saskatchewan, and we believe a large majority of the people appreciate his work and will on election day give him a majority greater than has ever yet been polled in Saskatchewan. The public have become sick of such opposition as is weekly dished up by the disgruntled editor of the Saskatchewan, and have already repudiated such would be leaders.
The intelligent elector refuses to accept dictation from disappointed aspirants for office or those who allow small personal feelings to stand between themselves and their countries good, and will so speak on polling day. Nominations take place on the 31st inst., and polling on November 7th.

CUMBERLAND.

If ever the electors of a constituency had an easy task of deciding as to the merits of election candidates appealing for their suffrages it is the electors of the above district, and we firmly believe that in the minds of a vast majority of the electorate of Cumberland that choice has rested on J. F. Petts, one of the candidates in the coming Northwest Assembly election. Mr. Betts stands before the electors asking the fullest criticism upon his record as a member of the Legislative Assembly. He can point with pardonable pride to numerous monuments of his untiring zeal in the welfare of his constituents, not only in the improved state of many public highways, bridges and other public works, but also to the part he has taken in shaping and promulgating many important legislative acts. Mr. Betts, were he disposed, might also take credit and direct the attention of the electors to his career as a successful man of business, and a much respected citizen during his twelve years of residence in Saskatchewan. THE TIMES knows that all these circumstances have been kept in view by the electors and that they only await the proper season and channel to find popular and decisive expression.

GUILTY OR NOT GUILTY?

The crime is acknowledged. True it has taken nearly two years to attract the attention of the heavy editor of the River street machine to the very grievous injury certain of his advertising matter was bound to do the country, but at last he has spoken and half a column or more of editorial? matter has been published for the purpose of informing the public that one half of his paper is printed in the east and that he should not be held responsible for what he publishes. As a matter of fact no one ever doubted this, and the feeling is generally expressed that the best interests of the district would be served if the whole eight pages were prepared where the patent inside comes from. Oh no, doctor, we never claimed you were responsible for the advertisements you published. We couldn't do it, you know. In fact we rather lean to the opinion that a generous public should not hold you accountable for anything in the newspaper line.

When caught in his evil practices and corrupt manners, the editor of the Saskatchewan, like the ostrich, hides his head and sobs "that he is not responsible for matter appearing in the paper he controls. It would be useless to refer, except in a general way, to the two columns of senseless and brainless nothingness which disgraced the "outside" of the Saskatchewan last week. Intended as a scathing criticism upon the actions of Mr. J. F. Betts and THE TIMES editor, when stripped of the superfluous verbiage surrounding it, the whole and sole purport of the article is that none of the three candidates who are now appealing to the electors of the District of Cumberland shall have the support of the Saskatchewan. The argument is so excruciatingly funny that it will bear repetition. Here it is. 1st.—The Saskatchewan, pregnant with the ugly opposition which has from its inception invariably characterized its policy, has found something in the public record of Mr. Betts which is worthy of remark, and cannot support him.

2nd.—That it can find nothing worthy of record in Mr. Plaxton's career, and will not render him any assistance.

2rd.—Mr. Philip Turner, another prospective candidate, is politely informed, much to his satisfaction no doubt, that he too will be relieved of at least one Jonah in his following by the absence of encouragement from the great Tribune of that emporium of all that is degrading in journalism, the manager of the Saskatchewan.

4th.—The editor of the Saskatchewan, having plotted and planned for months to obtain a nomination for himself from the caucus to depose and retire Mr. Plaxton and oppose

Mr. Betts, but having been repudiated and generally sat upon by the more respectable of the gathering, thereby frustrating his deeply laid plans, he now finds himself and his newspaper without a nomination, a candidate, or much of anything else, except a decidedly unsavory reputation, and like fabled canine in the manger would prefer to have the representation of the constituency vacant rather than not represent it himself. The foregoing are a few of the Saskatchewan's reasons for its present erratic course. Doubtless more may be obtained in its columns in future. Notwithstanding the regrettable nature of the subject, we feel compelled to intimate to the Saskatchewan that the vapors of either it or its editor will have about as lasting effects as a snowball in a certain locality.

We understand that the Council have a surplus from the estimated cost of public works now under contract. If such is the case, a sidewalk should be at once built from the corner of Third street to the Courthouse. We believe this work was originally contemplated, but owing to the limited amount of money on hand it was not undertaken. Now that money is available for the work the Council should not forget that Church street is one of the most important in the town.

THE NORTHWEST ACT.

The introduction of a second Northwest Bill during the session that has just closed has created a great deal of confusion in the public mind throughout the Territories. The first Bill was intitled "An Act to amend the Acts respecting the Northwest Territories," and which certain amendments was passed through both Houses and assented to by the deputy of the Governor General several weeks ago. Towards the very close of the session another Bill was introduced to amend this Act, by reducing the number of members of the Assembly from twenty six to twenty five. The former Bill having received the royal assent, it could be amended only by a separate measure. Mr. Lauriere took exception to the proposal to merge two French Canadian constituencies into one, and as the Bill could not pass excepting with the unanimous consent of the House it fell through. Thus the Bill originally passed stands, giving twenty six members to the Assembly. The defeat of the last Bill, however, is understood in the Territories, judging from the remarks in both of the Calgary newspapers, as the defeat of all legislation relating to the Northwest with the result that the situation now is exactly what it was a year ago. This is a misapprehension, and it arises from not having distinguished between the two Bills. The constitution of the Territories is changed in several material respects, and the Bill that failed was only intended to reduce the representation by one. The reason given by Mr. Abbott for proposing this change in the Act as passed earlier in the session was that since the publication of the census returns it was ascertained that Saskatchewan was given a larger representation than its population would justify, in proportion to that of the other Territories. This did not appeal to Mr. Lauriere as sufficient, however, and the rules requiring unanimous assent, the representation as fixed in the first Bill was left undisturbed.

One of the most important provisions of the new Act is the power given to the Lieutenant Governor to dissolve the Assembly and cause a new one to be chosen. In pursuance of this the understanding that the present Assembly will be dissolved and a new election held very shortly will doubtless be carried out. The new Assembly is given power to make all laws and regulations necessary in the conduct of elections, but pending its return this power is vested in the Lieutenant Governor. There has been a desire expressed that voting shall be by ballot, and we may be quite sure that the next Assembly, whatever Mr. Royal may do, will see that this mode of voting is adopted. In addition to provisions governing elections the Assembly is given power to legislate in respect to direct taxation for territorial, municipal or local purposes; the control of territorial offices; maintenance of prisons; municipal institutions; shop, saloon and other licenses; incorporation of companies with territorial objects; solemnization of marriage; property and civil rights; the administration of justice; "the expenditure of territorial funds and such portion of any moneys appropriated by Parliament for the Territories as the Lieutenant Governor is authorized to expend by and with the advice of the Legislative Assembly or of any committee thereof," and generally all matters of a local nature. The Assembly shall sit apart from the Governor, who shall assent to Bills or reserve them for the assent of the Governor General. It is given power to alter the boundaries of the electoral districts in its discretion. The measure of self government is extremely liberal, being nearly as great as that of the provinces. A portion of the Dominion appropriation will be reserved for the control of the Lieutenant Governor and this will probably form the subject of complaint with the more advanced members of the Assembly, as it has already done. But it is impossible that there can be at once a territorial constitution and a provincial constitution.—Free Press

PARNELL IS DEAD.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—Great Britain and Ireland were startled this morning by the utterly unlooked for announcement that Charles Stewart Parnell, the noted Irish leader, died suddenly yesterday evening at his home in Brighton. It has been well known that Mr. Parnell has not enjoyed the best of health for the past few years, and it has been noticed and widely commented upon that since the O'Shea divorce developments became matter of public notoriety, and since political trouble came upon him, the great Irish member of parliament has grown thinner, and that he has perceptibly aged in appearance, but nobody expected to hear of his death and no inkling of his illness had reached the newspapers. He died at his home, Walsingham Terrace, Brighton, at 11:30 yesterday evening. His death is said to have been indirectly due to a chill which he caught last week and which at first was not regarded as being of a serious nature. Parnell, however, grew worse and a physician was called in, with the result that the patient was ordered to take to his bed. This was last Friday, and from that time Parnell lost strength and finally succumbed. The exact nature of the disease which caused the death of the Irish leader is not made known at present. From the day he took to his bed, however, the state of Parnell's health has been such as to necessitate the constant attendance of two physicians; but in spite of their incessant and untiring efforts to prolong or save his life, Mr. Parnell gradually sank lower and lower until he expired in the arms of Mrs. Parnell, who is utterly prostrated by the shock experienced by her husband's death.

I CURE FITS!

When I say I cure I do not mean merely to stop them for a time and then have them return again. I mean a radical cure. I have made the disease of FITS, EPILEPSY or FALLING SICKNESS a life-long study. I warrant my remedy to cure the worst cases. Because others have failed to cure for not following a cure, send at once for a treatise and a Free Bottle of my Infalible remedy. A few thoughts concerning

ASTHMA

Its Cause and Cure

Must interest every one afflicted with this terrible disease. To describe this disease to one that has suffered for years the untold agonies of suffocation and distress night after night and who in many extreme cases would only gladly welcome death in order to be relieved from such suffering with no prospects of ever being any better is not pleasant to contemplate. All the boasted remedies heretofore claimed to cure Asthma have failed or only given temporary relief. The smoking of leaves and barks, saturated paper and pastilles has been resorted to as the last means for only a temporary relief anything being considered a blessing that will release the grasp of the fingers of death even for a short time, which seems to brighten every moment more and more; the sufferer knows that this is Asthma.

To-day suffocating, in a few days relieved, and no good reason can be given as to the cause of these sudden changes and return of suffering, only by the poisonous blood acting on the nerves producing the disease. In Asthma there is a

SPECIFIC POISON in the blood that must be DESTROYED before Asthma can be

This poison is oft-times inherited and passed through many generations, like Scrofula, never losing its power to produce Asthma and oft-times affecting the lungs and bringing the sufferer down to a Consumptive grave. Location, with surrounding causes will crowd and set to work this poison in the blood, so that in some sections of the country an Asthmatic cannot live, even in one part of a city their suffering is intense, move to another part and they are entirely free from Asthma. Thus you learn that there exists a certain poison in the system, that when certain influences are brought to bear that exist in the Atmosphere in many localities will develop this poison in an unusual degree thereby affecting the Nerves, producing spasms and difficult breathing, which every Asthmatic has had such sad experience with, suffering, and no hope of being cured; for having tried every known remedy, exhausted the skill of the physicians, have given up in despair.

After years of study and patient research and watching this disease in all its various phases under various circumstances we present a cure for Asthma known as DR. DAVIS' ASTHMALENE, which will entirely destroy this poison in the blood and restore the nerves to a healthy condition and when this is done the spasms will cease, the choking and subsiding, and the injury done to the lungs will begin at once to be repaired and the nerves restored to perfect health. ASTHMALENE is unlike all other so called Asthma cures, as it CONTAINS NO OPIUM, MORPHINE, IPECAC, SQUILLS, LOBELIA, ETHER, CHLOROFORM or any other dangerous or narcotic, but its combination is of such a nature that it will destroy every particle of this poison in the blood and eliminate it from the system, effect a cure and give a night's sweet sleep. We have received thousands of testimonials from every State in the Union of the marvelous cures from the use of the ASTHMALENE. We have never published them, for testimonials are being manufactured so extensively and sold so cheap that people have no confidence in them.

WE DO NOT WANT YOU TO SEND US MONEY

We do not make out a long list of prying, personal and impertinent questions, nor do we resort to any clap trap or any nonsense of any kind in order to make monthly or permanent patients; we only ask any one suffering from Asthma to TRY A FEW DOSES of Asthmale. We make NO CHARGE for a free bottle to sufferers from this terrible malady. Send your name on a postal card and we will mail

FREE

Dr. Davis' Asthmale to show its power over the disease, stop the spasms and give a night's sweet sleep, and prove to you no matter how bad your case that ASTHMALENE CAN CURE ASTHMA, and you need no longer neglect your business or sit in a chair all day gasping for breath for fear of suffocation. LOCAL HAPPENINGS

In Our Midst.

For evening Shawls and Gloves go to F. C. Baker's.

The writs for the Legislative Assembly elections arrived by Tuesday evening's mail.

Mrs. A. Goodfellow and children returned home from their visit to Winnipeg on Tuesday evening.

George Cockrill is erecting a new store on River street, immediately east of the old stand, for Wm. Shannon.

Mr. Justice McGuire returned home from Calgary, where his honor had been holding court, on Saturday evening last.

J. Lestock Reid, D.L.S., has received instructions to go on with the survey of a few townships in the Shell River district.

Mr. A. G. Sutherland, of THE TIMES staff, who has been visiting friends at Winnipeg for the past few weeks, returned by Tuesday's train.

Another party of South Dakotans arrived by yesterday's train, some of them to remain, and the others to look around and see the country for themselves.

The Melton Dress Goods at 25c per yard, and all wool Grey Flannel at 25c, what we wonder at. See them and you will buy them, at F. C. Baker's.

A heavy fall of the "beautiful" on Monday last. However, it is fast disappearing, and is just the thing our farmers wanted to enable them to go on with fall ploughing.

We understand the electric light will be turned on this week, arrangements having been made for the use of the engine at Sanderson's mill until the company's own power is ready.

We are happy once more. Our right bower has returned. He denies having lost his tag, or that he went out to see a man but once during his absence. He is very reticent, and won't say whether that man was from Prince Albert or not.

At the Queen's—A. T. J. Tibert, Montreal; J. D. Roberts, Toronto; G. W. Worth, Mansfield, S. Dakota; W. A. Fowler, Regina; G. Douglas, Duck Lake; Jas. Hudson, H. L. Bloch, Gordon, S. D.; John Kries, Warner, S. D.

On dit—that Saskatchewan Hall is soon to be opened by a grand ball under the management of members of the N. W. M. Police. The citizens of our ambitious town will soon have a chance to trip the light fantastic under the electric light.

Residents of the town and others are enjoying the benefits of the new side walks this muddy weather. Pedestrians can now travel from the railway station to the H. B. Co.'s east end store—some two miles—feeling perfectly contented so far as the mud is concerned.

One dollar isn't very much, but it will buy a lot of goods at F. C. Baker's.

Mr. F. S. Spencer, of Toronto, secretary of the Dominion Alliance, will arrive in town on Saturday evening's train. He will preach in the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning next, and in the Methodist church in the evening; he will also address a temperance mass meeting in the Town Hall at 4 p.m. of the same day.

The publishers of the Dominion Illustrated have in preparation the most magnificent Christmas Number ever issued in Canada. Its literary and artistic features will stand unrivalled. It will be a purely Canadian work. Wait for it! Published by the Sabiston Litho & Pub. Co., Montreal.

Mr. Betts has received a letter from Supt. Niblock of the C. P. R., and President of the Medicine Hat General Hospital, informing him that he has secured the services of several American and Canadian artists, and that he will during the next few weeks make another tour of the Territories in the interests of the hospital. He hopes to reach here and give entertainments on the evenings of November the 9th, 10th and 11th. Prince Albert people were delighted with Mr. Niblock's entertainments last season, and with the additional features he has added to his combination, he will no doubt, draw bumper houses again. The object is a worthy one, and the interest Mr. Niblock has always taken in the work entitles him to a good greeting from all the towns he may visit.

For Gent's Furnishings of all kinds go to F. C. Baker's. Our Top Shirts and Underclothing are especially good.

WHO SHALL DECIDE WHEN

To the Editor of the Times.

Sir,—Perhaps you are not aware that one of your subscribers (an intelligent man, strange to say, for he is only a farmer) has kept a file of the TIMES from Vol. I No. 1 till this date. I was not in this part of the country when THE TIMES first saw the light, but was here at the genesis of the Saskatchewan and, having a little curiosity as to first numbers, I have also kept a parcel of cyclostyle ventures endorsed Critics, Hustlers and Fools. I do not know that you will be able to excuse me, but I hailed the advent of the Critic and its successor the Saskatchewan as likely to be of advantage to our district. THE TIMES had doubtless an honorable career to point to. It had maintained its dignity and had done yeoman service to the country. Still I thought even THE TIMES would not be the worse of a little active opposition. I liked the freshness of the Critic's style and, though it was primarily a party organ, it was never ungenerally in its language or vulgar in its ideas; and there was about it and the earlier Saskatchewan's a distinct will of independence, which I then thought and still think is a capital thing in itself and very requisite for us in the present circumstances of our country. It is rather curious to contrast the early numbers of the Saskatchewan with those of recent date and especially to compare the first number with the latest. The paper seems gradually to have cut loose from its original principles altogether and to have lost even the shadow of its former independence. It appears to have tied itself neck and crop to the most narrow-minded subdivision of the local section of the Reform party and sunk to a level in manner and style which cannot truly be said to be at all offset or redeemed by any marked signs of ability or originality in the material supplied to its readers. Perhaps it matters little here where all the facts are known, but the prevalent system of exchange now gives certain newspapers a wider circulation, in a sense, than they might otherwise command, and, keeping this fact in view, it is almost a pity the Saskatchewan is now characterized by such poverty and such a total lack of elevated tone and healthy robustness of sentiment and expression; and that it is pervaded throughout by a something that may aptly enough be phrased literary diarrhoea.

I observe a very favorite expression of the Saskatchewan recently has been, "the lunatic asylum." In three out of four issues I have lately read, this expression is brought into juxtaposition in the most absurd manner with parties and individuals from whom, for the nonce, the paper happens to differ. I also now uses the word "lunatic" in an equally unadvised way. In a curious article, in the issue of 7th instant, deprecating its own "patent inside" and disclaiming responsibility for what appears therein, this offensive word "lunatic" occurs three times in as many consecutive sentences. It may be news to the Saskatchewan that some people really prefer its "ready-printed" to its original department. Nevertheless, I was recently in a house where several brothers read the patent inside, except the ads, every week while, of the original side, they read only the ads, the locals and the telegraphic news. The Saskatchewan may say there is no accounting for taste, but I would not like to be responsible for the consequences should it tell either of these men to his face he is an "idiot" or an "ignoramus."

The Saskatchewan should learn that if it is ever to recover lost ground and become a respectable and influential journal (which I for one would like to see, but now have little hope of) it must change its tactics and return to the first promise of its early numbers. It must serve its readers with something purer, better and more substantial than meagre re-hashes of the stalest and flattest party political garbage, quixotic girdings at THE TIMES, and feeble platitudes about Mr. Macdowall and Mr. Butts, which, it may be hoped, are not dictated solely by personal animus. In the whole of this latest issue there is not one original sentence or idea calculated to do the least good or be of the slightest use to its readers or of benefit to the community at large; and if it is to become nothing better than a vent for spite and spleen, the sooner it shuts up the better, for even its owners may by and by become ashamed of it.

Yours, etc.,
READER.

"German Syrup"

Here is something from Mr. Frank A. Hale, proprietor of the De Witt House, Lewiston, and the Tontine Hotel, Brunswick, Me. Hotel men meet the world as it comes and goes, and are not slow in sizing people and things up for what they are worth. He says that he has lost a father and several brothers and sisters from Pulmonary Consumption, and is himself frequently troubled with colds, and he often coughs enough to make him sick at his stomach. Whenever he has taken a cold of this kind he uses Doan's German Syrup, and it cures him every time. Here is a man who knows the full danger of lung troubles, and would therefore be most particular as to the medicine he used. What is his opinion? Listen! "I use nothing but Doan's German Syrup, and have advised, I presume, more than a hundred different persons to take it. They agree with me that it is the best cough syrup in the market."
